KDT School of Contemporary Dance Introduces Summer College Dance Intensive

Kinetics Dance Theatre, of Ellicott City, Maryland, announces new this year a one-week Summer Pre-professional College Dance Intensive, July 21-25, centering on modern and contemporary technique, with an emphasis on performance skills.

Kinetics will bring together instructors and dancers from in and around the Maryland and Virginia area in a program designed for individuals to immerse themselves in an intensive dance experience. The one-week dance intensive will enroll participants age 18 and older who have a minimum of three years of current and continuous dance training and the ability to dance at an intermediate level.

Offering 8 daily classes taught by outstanding dance artists and educators from the Maryland and Virginia area, the intensive will take place at Kinetics Dance Theatre in Ellicott City, Maryland.

Applicants for the Pre-Professional Summer College Dance Intensive may audition by taking an audition class at Kinetics Dance Theatre or submitting a video audition. Applicants must audition in one of the accepted audition classes only and submit an application form with a current resume.

This is the first time Kinetics has offered a dance intensive for college students. Previously, camps were only offered for children and youth ages 4-18.

“Kinetics is proud to offer an intensive for college students pursuing dance with a strong faculty from the Maryland and Virginia area. We hope to be able to expand the program in the future,” said Kinetics School Director Emily Socolinsky.

Kinetics Dance Theatre, a non-profit organization founded in 1984, promotes dance through performance and offers high quality dance education to students of all ages. Kinetics consists of the Professional Dance Company and the School of Contemporary Dance. Integrated into the School of Contemporary Dance are two youth performing companies, Senior and Student Dance Companies.
